10 ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITHOUT
11 PREJUDICE

12 On October 28, 2014, J. Cramer, a state prisoner, filed a letter attempting to assert
13 constitutional claims against employees of Pelican Bay State Prison. On the same day, the Clerk
14 of the Court sent Cramer a notice that he had not filed a complaint on the proper form to assert
15 civil rights claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and that he had not submitted an application to proceed
16 In Forma Pauperis (“IFP”). Doc. Nos. 2, 3. The first notice informed Cramer that he must submit 17 a complaint on the correct form within twenty-eight days or his case would be dismissed and the 18 file closed. Doc. No. 2. The second notice informed Cramer that he must either pay the filing fee
19 or file a completed IFP application within twenty-eight days of the date of the notice or his action
20 would be dismissed and the file closed. Doc. No. 3. The Clerk mailed Cramer a blank civil rights complaint, a copy of the Court’s IFP application and a return envelope.

21 More than twenty-eight days have passed and Cramer has not submitted a completed IFP
22 application or a complaint on the correct form.

23 Accordingly, it is ordered that this action is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The 24 Clerk shall terminate all pending motions, and close the file.
